FIRST MATCH GAME OF BASEBALL SEASON

Gimlin and Margetts Arrange Boys Are Practicing Hard, and Contest With Picked Team Line-Ups.

Bert Margetis and "Dad" Gimlin got together Friday and arranged a match game for Sunday afternoon to be played in Ogden, which will be the opening game of the season. Margetts has selected a fast bunch and Gimlin will have to go some to keep down the score. Margetts said that it has always been his ambition to pick a team one to the season and go to Ogden and show Gimlin that there are some real "live ones" in this city, and he expects to make the "Lobsters" do some lively stunts. Gimlin has lined up a strong bunch of Ogden boys and says he can beat anything that ever came from Salt Lake in the baseball line. In fact, the Junction City fans are willing to back Gimlin's judgment for a few "eartwheels."
